JOHN FOSTER DULLES,
Secretary of State.

RED CROSS MONTH, 1959

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the American National Red Cross is the organization officially designated by the Congress to carry out certain great humanitarian works, including welfare services to the armed forces of the United States and their families; and

WHEREAS under Federal laws and regulations the Red Cross provides emergency relief to our citizens in time of disaster and gives needed assistance in restoring stricken communities to normal living; and

WHEREAS, true to the broad principles on which the Red Cross was founded, the American National Red Cross has worked with eighty-one other Red Cross societies for the alleviation of suffering and distress in our land and overseas; and

WHEREAS through its blood program, home nursing, first aid, water safety, and other voluntary services, the Red Cross helps to safeguard the health of our people and to advance the American traditions of generous and responsible citizenship:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America and Honorary Chairman of the American National Red Cross, do hereby designate March 1959 as Red Cross Month; and I urge all Americans to honor the Red Cross during that month by fully supporting it as a channel of charitable concern for their neighbors in need.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this second day of February in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-nine, and [SEAL] of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-third.

NATIONAL CHILDREN'S DENTAL HEALTH WEEK, 1959

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

February 4, 1959
[No. 3275]

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the dental health of our children is a basic part of their general well-being; and

WHEREAS dental diseases are among the most widespread of the ailments of childhood, and dental neglect can cause suffering and disability in later years; and

WHEREAS our dental profession is observing in 1959 the one-hundredth anniversary of its organization and is reemphasizing the importance of preventing dental disease; and

WHEREAS a joint resolution of the Congress, approved on August 28, 1958 (72 Stat. 986), authorized the President to issue a proclamation setting aside the period from February 8 to 14, 1959, as National Children's Dental Health Week:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim the week beginning February 8 and ending February 14, 1959, as National Children's Dental Health Week; and I request the appropriate agencies of the Federal Government to participate fully in the observance of that week. I also invite State and local governments and organizations interested in child welfare to unite during that week in such activities as will call to the attention of the people of the United States the necessity of a continuous program for the protection of the dental health of the Nation's children.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this fourth day of February in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-nine, and [SEAL] of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-third.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

By the President:

DOUGLAS DILLON,
Acting Secretary of State.
